

Timothy A. Price

Summary	Master's graduate with academic and professional background in geographic information systems and cartography. Extensive research, cartographic design, and analytical experience working with a broad range of software on multiple platforms. Comfortable in different roles: student, instructor, administrator, analyst, or project coordinator.
Education	2002 – 2004 Ohio University, Athens, Ohio Master of Arts Geography 1996 – 2002 Ohio University, Athens, Ohio Bachelor of Science Geography Spring 1999 Ohio-Leipzig European Center, Leipzig, Germany German Media 1996 – 1997 McGraw-Hill, Washington, D.C. Diploma Small Appliance Repair
Additional Professional Activities	Photo Editor The Post, Ohio University student newspaper, Athens, Ohio Resident Advisor Ohio-Leipzig European Center, Leipzig, Germany Photographer United States National Park Service, Denali National Park and Preserve, Denali, Alaska
Professional Memberships	Association of American Geographers Gamma Pi Delta Gamma Theta Upsilon
Systems Experience	GIS Software: ArcGIS, ArcView, ArcIMS, AutoCAD, ENVI, Google Earth, ERDAS Imagine, ESRI PLTS For Defense Solutions, Feature Analyst, Idrisi Graphic Design Software: Adobe Acrobat, Adobe InCopy, Adobe InDesign, Adobe Photoshop, CorelDraw, Quark Web Authoring: Front Page, Dreamweaver

Work Experience

Vice President of Operations

April 2006 – Current
GIS Dynamics
7157 East Kemper Road, Cincinnati, OH 45249
800-270-6782

- Plan, organize, direct, and control the activities of the Operations function of GIS Dynamics. Responsible for the performance of all department functions — Data Acquisition, Sales and Marketing.
- Onsite coordinator for The United Nations, MONUC, in the Democratic Republic of Congo for development, implementation and training of TLM50 mapping procedures using ESRI PLTS for Defense Solutions software.
- Project manager for municipal separate storm water sewer system (MS4) update of Dayton, Ohio.
- Project manager for GIS sewer network startup for Central Falls, Rhode Island.
- Primary onsite consultant for GPS data acquisition project, Lagos, Nigeria.
- Spatially analyzed data and generated GIS-based maps.
- Performed mapping requests using historical and environmental information.
- Acquired, integrated, and manipulated raw imagery, raster data, and various types of vector data.
- Developed processes for standard data generation, as well as building and maintaining databases.

Lecturer in Geography

August 2005 – November 2005
Indiana University Southeast
Grant Line Road, New Albany, IN 47150
Dr. Glenn Mason
812-941-2684

Taught classes in World Regional Geography, as well as Geographic Information Systems. Assisted students with projects by helping them to implement GIS strategies and standards through the use of modeling.

Administrative Assistant

February 2005 – June 2005
Court Street Management
8 North Court St., Athens, OH 45701
Joel Schechtman
740-589-6403

Installed and maintained computer equipment, assisted with daily operations of restaurant and music venues.

Director of Technical Services

*March 1998 – February 2005
The Post Newspaper
20 East Union St., Athens, OH 45701
James Rodgers
740-593-4010*

Responsibilities included maintaining newspaper computer systems (PC and Mac) and photo equipment, supervising 10+ student employees, dealing with customers for accounting and/or advertising issues, ordering equipment and supplies.

Graduate Assistant

*September 2002 – June 2004
Ohio University
Clippinger Labs 122, Athens, OH 45701
Dr. James Lein
740-593-1147*

Maintained computer systems for Ohio University's Department of Geography. Assisted professors by teaching classes in:

Cartography
Physical Geography
Remote Sensing
Statistical Geography
Advanced GIS Applications

Cartographic Internship

*January 2002 – June 2002
O.U. Cartographic Center
Clippinger Labs 122
Dr. Hugh Bloemer Athens, OH 45701
740-593-1150*

Projects included mapping the Serpent Mound effigy for the Ohio Historical Society, scanning and preserving maps for the city of Athens, Ohio, and mapping the Athens County bike trail system.

Resident Advisor

*September 1999 – June 2000
Bromley Hall
35 So. Congress St. Athens, OH 45701*

Advisor to students at an off-campus dorm, responsible for keeping order, working the front desk.

Temporary Worker

*November 1997 – March 1998
Manpower, Inc.
430 Landis Ave, Vineland, NJ 08360
856-691-8500*

Various jobs from grocery inventory to packaging to disaster cleanup.

Self-employed

1992 – 1995

TAP Photographic New Jersey and New York

Installed and maintained photographic processing equipment, trained staff on equipment operation.

Lead Lab Technician

1993 – 1994

Trump Plaza Casino

Atlantic City, NJ

Responsible for the upkeep and operation of casino photographic lab, photographing of casino entertainers and guests, trained personnel, kept financial records.

Franchise Consultant

1990 – 1993

One Hour MotoPhoto, Inc.

Pleasantville, NJ and Los Angeles, CA

Responsible for 20+ stores, supervising construction of stores, installation of equipment, planning advertising and training of staff.

Technical Service Representative

1988 – 1989

Noritsu America Corp.

Fairfield, NJ

Repaired and installed Noritsu photo processing equipment, trained customers in the proper maintenance and usage of equipment.

Lab Technician

1987 – 1988

California Photo Lab

No. Hollywood, CA

Maintained Noritsu and Kodak photo processing equipment, handled line production.

Store Manager

1986 – 1987

Foothill One Hour Photo

Pasadena, CA

Maintained equipment, hired and trained personnel, kept financial records, coordinated advertising and marketing campaigns, ordered supplies.

Central Station Operator

1985 – 1986

Honeywell, Inc.

Denver, CO

Bonded, licensed monitor of emergency alarm systems, both home and business related.

Color Mural Printer

1984 – 1985

Mammoth Color Labs, Inc.

Hollywood, CA

Printed murals of up to 50 inches using large format negatives, maintained equipment, and monitored process quality controls.

Assistant District Manager

1982 – 1984

One Hour MotoPhoto, Inc

Denver, CO

Maintained equipment, hired and trained personnel, kept financial records, coordinated advertising and marketing campaigns, ordered supplies.